

DIFFICULTY TRACKING ASSIGNMENTS

KEY FACTS/INSIGHTS

Nearly 80% of students reported having missing assignments each month.

Only 39% of students agree they use a calendar or planner to track tasks and deadlines.

43% of students cited poor organization as a factor leading to procrastination and difficulty completing tasks.

IMPACT OF PROBLEM

Missed assessments or assignments can lead to stress

Having a difficulty of tracking assignments can lead to academic stress

When not tracking assignments, this could lead to missed submissions

SOLUTION OF PROBLEM

StudySync

StudySync collects tasks that students manually add (or import) from different sources, groups them by subject, and shows deadlines in a clear list and calendar view. It is designed to be lightweight and easy to use so students will actually keep using it.
